ZENITH AVIATION ACQUIRES DORNIER 328 TURBOPROP
ASSETS FROM SATENA COLOMBIA

FREDERICKSBURG, VA – September 15, 2014 – Zenith Aviation, an industry-leading aircraft parts supply and logistics support company, has acquired a large quantity of the Dornier 328 turboprop aircraft assets from the airline SATENA, Bogota, Colombia.

The assets acquired include over 1000 New, Repaired, and Overhauled Rotable and Consumable parts that originally supported SATENA's 328 turboprop fleet. Also included was a large quantity of Rotable components to be overhauled. The parts will reside in Zenith's Fredericksburg, Virginia climate-controlled warehouse, which provides state-of-the-art computer automated storage and retrieval systems that can pick a part in less than 60 seconds with a 99 percent accuracy rate.

"This purchase continues and strengthens Zenith's commitment to serving the Dornier 328 turboprop operators worldwide," said Bob Stanford, President and CEO of Zenith.

ZENITH AVIATION CORPORATE BACKGROUNDER

Zenith Aviation was formed in 2002 when the company was awarded the exclusive marketing and distribution rights for all remaining Dornier 328 aircraft, both the turbine-powered and turboprop models.

In 2012 Zenith invested more than $3 million to increase the size of its secure, climate-controlled warehouse, bringing the total size to 44,000 square feet, including a state-of-the-art automated inventory storage and retrieval system to improve storage capabilities and operational efficiencies.

Zenith adheres to the highest quality management systems in the industry and has earned certifications in both the AS9120 Rev. A and ISO 9001:2008 quality standards. The company retains these certifications through annual audits conducted by BSI, the industry leading ISO 9001 certification body, as well as through regular on-site client audits.

Zenith has more than 50,000 line items currently in stock. In addition to the Dornier 328 and 228, the company stocks parts for Bombardier, Embraer, Agusta, ATR, Bell Helicopter and Hawker Beechcraft aircraft. Zenith is also experienced in providing third-party logistics support for companies that require turnkey storage solutions for their parts and supply needs.

Zenith Aviation is based in Fredericksburg, VA—is a certified HUB Zone provider—and is centrally located to serve a wide range of customers within the National Capital Region and worldwide.
